

INTERNSHIP OFFER LETTER

Congratulations,

Date: 09/03/2024

Dear Shadrack Kipkorir Bett

We are pleased to offer you the position of Web development and designing Intern at SoftNetix. Your selection is a testament to your exceptional qualifications and potential, and we are excited to welcome you to our team.

The internship will commence on 11 March 2024, and conclude on 11 April 2024, spanning duration of 4 weeks. As a virtual intern, you will have the flexibility to work remotely from your own location, allowing you to balance your internship with your other commitments.

During this time, you will have the opportunity to gain valuable hands-on experience in the field of data science through projects and assignments. You will be supported by our team who will provide guidance and mentorship throughout the internship.

We believe that this internship will provide you with valuable insights, skills, and experiences that will support your academic and professional growth. We are committed to providing you with the necessary support and resources to ensure a successful and rewarding internship experience.

After completion of internship you will be provided Internship completion certificate.

We wish you all the best

Thank You!
